PROVINCIAL MUSIC FESTIVAL

COMPOSITION STREAM 9500

The Nova Scotia Provincial Music Festival provides an opportunity for the following types of composition to be submitted and adjudicated:

- Solo/Duo – for one or two instrument[s] or voice[s]. An accompaniment is permitted. Please indicate instrument[s] on your score.
- Ensemble – any combination of three or more instruments and/or voices, including orchestral and choral scores. Please indicate instruments/voices on your score.

COMPOSITION CLASS REGULATIONS

1. Participation is limited to unpublished works by non-professional composers;
2. This is a recorded stream of classes. Participants are not required to attend the Provincial Music Festival Finals in person. Each entry will consist of a printed score [PDF] and a digital recording [live or midi] of the composition [MP3 or MP4], submitted electronically. The performance does not have to be by the composer;
3. Each entry is assumed to be the original work of the individual whose name appears on the entry form attached to the manuscript. Any infraction of this regulation would result in the disqualification of the entry;
4. All rights to his/her original work will be retained by the composer; however, by entering the class you agree that your composition may be published, recorded, and available to be downloaded for public use from the FMFNS and FCMF websites, or employed by FMFNS and FCMF for publicity purposes after consultation with and agreement of the composer;
5. Manuscripts printed by computers are encouraged. Handwritten manuscripts should be neat and legibly written in black ink, in regulation manuscript size, including all necessary details of dynamics, editing, and tempo, with the first measure of each line numbered. Please retain the original copy of your submitted work;
6. Maximum length of compositions in all classes is a performance time of 10 minutes;
7. All entries must include a Title Page, including the name of the selection and instrumentation, and a short section of programme notes or notes to the performer.

PROCESS

The competition is conducted at three progressive levels:

1. Local Festival The maximum number of entries recommended from each Local Festival to compete at the Provincial Festival in National Music Festival classes is determined by the Provincial Associations. Adjudicators at the Local Festival may choose, in each Composition class, two entries that are deemed to be of National standard. The competition is based on the submission of one original composition. A signed recommendation along with a recording and a digital copy of the music score must be submitted to the Provincial Administrator.

2. Provincial Festival Entries recommended to the Provincial level of competition must be the same original composition that was recommended by the adjudicator at the Local level. Adjudicators at the Provincial level may choose, in each class, one composition that is deemed to be of a national standard. The composition adjudicator for each provincial music festival is allowed to send 2 extra submissions, chosen from 2023 FMFNS Provincial Music Festival Page 19 of 19 across the classes, with no more than one extra submission per class. The signed recommendation along with the recording, a digital copy of the music score, and the entry fee as outlined above must be submitted by June 30th.

3. National Festival Entries recommended to the National level must be the same original composition that was recommended by the adjudicator at the Local and Provincial levels. Compositions are adjudicated and the participants are notified
