

Ken Hassell BMEd, MM

Ken is an organist and music educator with over 40 years of experience in education and music ministry. He holds undergraduate and graduate degrees in music and music education from Acadia University in Wolfville and Southern Methodist University in Dallas. Additionally, he has studied organ privately and participated in masterclasses with many accomplished organists throughout England, France, Germany, and North America. Ken has extensive solo and collaborative performance experience with local, national, and international ensembles. Ken's conducting experience includes graduate and post graduate courses, private study, and seminars at Southern Methodist University in Dallas and the University of Manitoba in Winnipeg. Ken's diverse experiences as a church musician and as a music educator have fostered a love for and great facility with a wide variety of musical styles.